

PENNSYLVANIA IS DEMOCRATIC FOR FIRST TIME IN FORTY YEARS

Guffey Leads Ticket To Senate Seat, First in 60 Years In State.

CONGRESSIONAL GAINS REVEALED

By the A. P.
Seven thousand three hundred and eighty-three districts out of 7,957 in the state show the following unofficial results:
Reed, 1,313,698; Guffey, 1,414,366.
Seven thousand three hundred and eighty-four precincts gave Schnader, 1,350,448, and Earle, 1,393,398.
For lieutenant governor, Scott had 866,584 to Kennedy's 909,896 in 4,465 precincts.
Taylor received 860,522 to Logue's 899,278 for secretary of internal affairs, in 4,466 precincts.
For judge of the superior court Trexler received 868,521 to Rhode's 899,288 in 4,436 precincts.

Philadelphia, Nov. 7 (AP).—Out of the wreckage of its republican traditions, Pennsylvania today watched mounting pluralities for the New Deal apostle, Joseph F. Guffey, the keystone state's first democratic United States senator in 60 years.

The Pittsburgh oil man, who campaigned as the defender of the New Deal, has a lead of 100,666 over the veteran Senator David A. Reed, critic of President Roosevelt, with comparatively few districts missing. Shortly after noon, Reed conceded the election of Guffey.

In the democratic sweep Pennsylvania elected George H. Earle, former minister to Austria, as governor. This is the first democratic governor in forty years.

Congressional Gains
Further, the democrats made gains in the congressional delegation and made material inroads in the general assembly, controlled by the G. O. P. for years. They won a majority in the state house of representatives.

Earle is leading Schnader, republican candidate, backed by the independent republican governor, Gifford Pinchot, by more than 40,000.

The governor attributed the victory in part to "the strength of the president." As another reason he said: "The American people are sick of the Old Deal."

Shortly before noon, Schnader would not issue an unqualified acknowledgment of defeat. He said: "On the face of the returns, I appear to be defeated. If I am, I congratulate Mr. Earle heartily. But my friends in certain sections of the state do not concede the correctness of the returns. Until I look into their reason for thus advising me I shall have nothing further to say."

Pennsylvania Is Key

By the Associated Press.
A conquering New Deal, brushing challengers aside, continued its victorious sway today as late returns were tallied.

Democrats themselves were almost breathless as they contemplated the extent of their triumph.

"Pennsylvania democratic! Need more be said?" was their summary.

A total of seventy senatorships for their party out of 96 seats remained a possibility and they still enjoyed a net gain of 15 house memberships. Republican losses included six definite losses in the senate and four more indicated.

The states taken over by democratic candidates for senatorships: New Jersey, Connecticut, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Rhode Island. Democrats led in New Mexico and West Virginia.

Counting for the house of representatives was much slower. When the democrats passed 218, the majority mark, on the way to what they insisted would again be "more than two-thirds," republicans had a scant 55 seats.

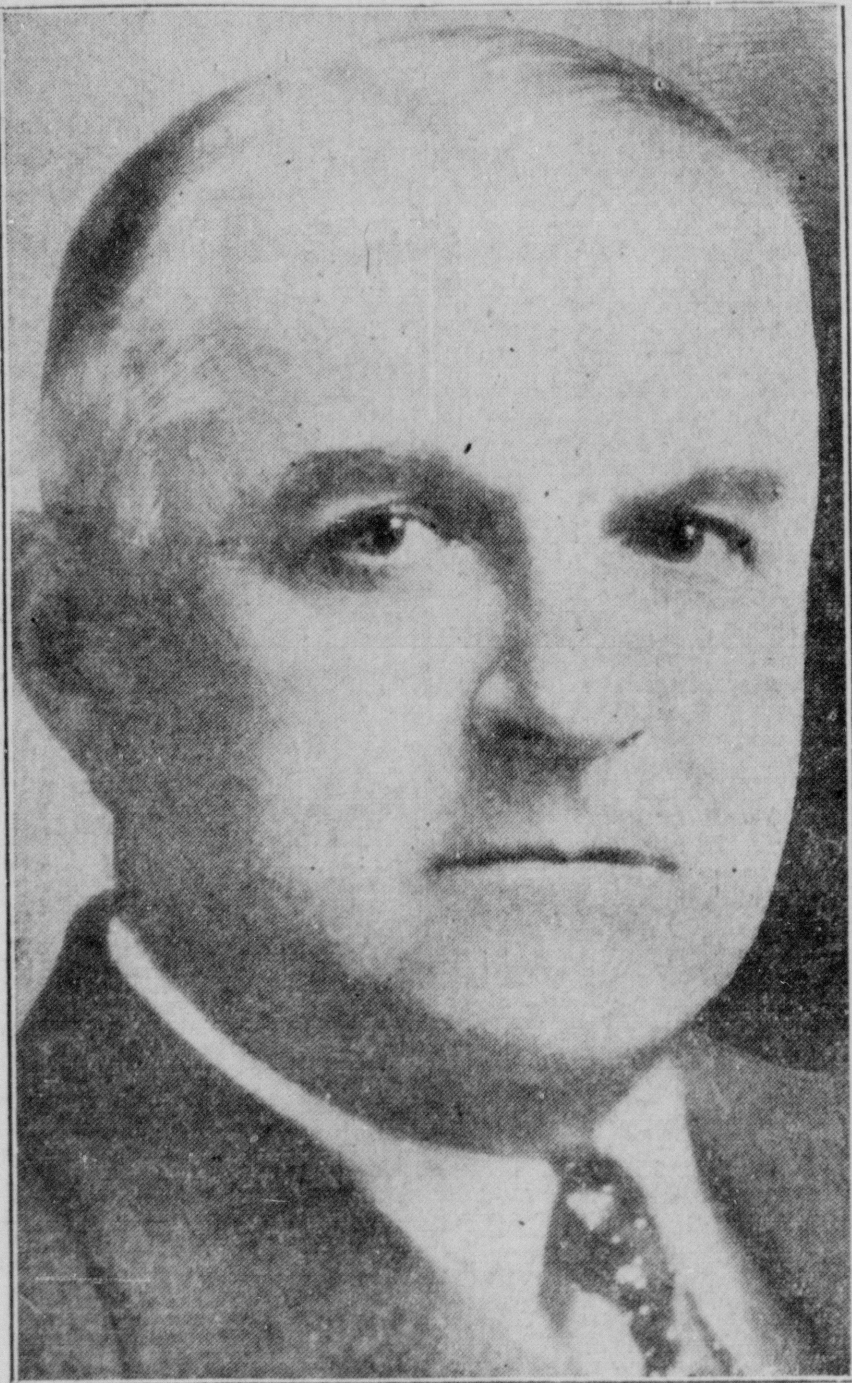

Austin, of Vermont, was the only republican senatorial candidate definitely listed as a winner, but Vandenberg still led in Michigan and Townsend in Delaware. Frazier, republican independent who has supported the New Deal, led in North Dakota.

The number of democratic governors, now standing at 38, also seemed likely to be boosted.

Three Negro Enrollees Steal and Wreck Coupe

Three colored enrollees at C. C. C. camp, M. P. No. 2, on the battlefield, who according to police, took the coupe of William Mentzer, 143 East Water street, from a parking lot in the rear of the Hotel Gettysburg, Tuesday evening, drove to York and then sideswiped a truck on the way home, are in the Adams county jail today on charges of operating a car without the owner's consent.

The driver of the car, Nathan Bullock, 21, of Mannunk, also will be prosecuted in York on a charge of failing to stop and render assistance after an accident.

With Bullock at the time of the accident which occurred on the Lincoln highway, one mile east of Abbottstown, at 2:30 o'clock this morning, were Charles Dorsey, 20; Francis Chase, 18, and Robert Miller, 20, an enrollee at M. P. No. 1, all of York.

Exonerate Fourth Youth
Miller was exonerated by state highway patrolmen of any participation in the theft of Mentzer's car. Patrolmen said Miller was being returned to camp by the other three Negroes.

After Mentzer's coupe sideswiped a truck driven by C. A. Fogle, of Winchester, Virginia, disabling both machines, Bullock, Dorsey and Chase left the scene of the accident and hitch-hiked back to camp, police said. Miller remained at the scene of the accident.

The York sub-station of the highway patrol was notified of the accident, and Patrolman Maurice Hughes responded.

This morning Patrolman Hughes and Deputy Sheriff G. C. Zimmerman, of York county, came to Gettysburg. Accompanied by Enrollee Miller the officers went to Camp No. 2 to arrest Bullock, Dorsey and Chase.

Hide In Woods
The trio apparently saw the officers arriving at camp and ran into the woods some distance from the camp. As the officers searched the woods, Deputy Sheriff Zimmerman made a remark that he was going to shoot into every clump of bushes he saw. The hiding Negroes apparently heard the remark and appeared immediately.

After their arrest, the colored

HARRY F. AUMEN EXPIRES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

29-Year-Old Battle-field Guide Dies of Complication of Diseases.

HOLD FUNERAL 2 P. M. FRIDAY

Following an illness of six weeks, Harry Francis Aumen, 29, a battle-field guide, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Aumen, West Middle street, died at the Warner hospital at 4:40 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, of septicemia and a heart condition.

Mr. Aumen contracted pneumonia six weeks ago, and was confined to bed at his home for a week before being removed to the hospital five weeks ago. Although the patient was brought through the pneumonia safely, little hope was held for his recovery, and septicemic poisoning and a heart condition developed.

On several occasions, Mr. Aumen was reported in a critical condition, but each time he amazed physicians and attendants by rallying. Two days ago, however, he lapsed into a coma from which he never rallied.

The deceased, a native of Gettysburg, attended Gettysburg high school and then started working at the Gettysburg furniture factory. In 1927, he became a battle-field guide, a position he held at the time of his death.

Funeral Friday
He was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, the Loyal Order of Moose, the Pennsylvania State Firemen's association, the Southeastern Firemen's association, the Adams county Firemen's association and the Gettysburg Fire company.

Surviving are the parents, one brother, James A. Aumen, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. Edward Rinehart, of Gettysburg, and Miss Helen M. Aumen, at home.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Aumen home, 65 West Middle street, the Rev. Frederick B. Crane, pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Friends may call at the Aumen home after 6 o'clock this evening.

Washington, Nov. 7 (AP).—The department of justice today announced its agents had taken into custody Oscar H. "Buster" Robson on authorization of the United States attorney, of Phoenix, Arizona, as the kidnapper of six-year-old June Robles.

The department said a federal complaint is being filed, charging Robson with sending extortion letters through the mails. He was identified by various handwriting experts who declared the writing in the letters which called for payment of $15,000 was his.

For several years he has been connected with a dance hall in Tucson.

Congressman Leads Ticket As He Is Re-Elected for Third Term; Adams Gives Every Democratic Candidate Substantial Lead in Tuesday's Election.

LOCAL PHYSICIAN IS RETURNED TO LOWER HOUSE FOR 2ND TERM

Voters of Gettysburg and Adams county expressed confidence in the New Deal in Tuesday's general election and helped elect every state and local democratic candidate.

Congressman Harry L. Haines, of Red Lion, who has served the twenty-second congressional district for two terms and who campaigned for a continuation of the New Deal policies of President Roosevelt, was returned to office by an unofficial majority of 9,388 votes, with ten districts still unreported in Franklin county.

In Adams county, Congressman Haines was an easy victor over his republican opponent, Emanuel C. Beck, of York, although the democratic incumbent's majority this year in this county was almost 1,200 votes less than two years ago.

Franklin for Haines
Franklin county went for Haines and the unofficial vote for the congressional candidates follows:

	Adams	York	Franklin
Haines	7,630	31,020	10,660
Beck	6,315	23,524	9,895

The vote for the two candidates by counties follows:
Adams 7,630
York 31,020
Franklin 10,660
Beck 6,315
Franklin county's vote for Congressman Haines was a distinct surprise to political observers. To carry Franklin county, the democratic incumbent had to overcome a republican majority, as shown by the registration figures, of several thousand. While helping to elect Haines, Franklin county also astounded political observers by electing a democratic assemblyman, B. Z. Moomaw, of Waynesboro, who defeated A. J. White Hutton, of Chambersburg.

Hartman Re-Elected
Incidentally, Congressman Haines led his ticket in Adams county.

Dr. H. M. Hartman, of Gettysburg, seeking re-election as state assemblyman from Adams county for the second two-year term, again defeated Robert E. Tipton, republican, also of Gettysburg, as he did two years ago, his majority being 1285.

The vote for the two candidates follows:

Hartman	7599
Tipton	6314

As in the case of Congressman Haines, Doctor Hartman's majority this year was more than 1,800 under that of two years ago, when the assemblyman led his ticket in Adams county.

For the other state-wide candidates balloted upon Tuesday, Adams county voters showed a decided preference for the democrats, with the result that all won substantial majorities in this county.

Town Is Democratic
Even normally republican Gettysburg helped swell the majorities of the state and local candidates.

For senator, 438 of the state's 2,914 precincts, gave Callahan, democrat, 15,434; LaFollette, progressive, 34,584; Chapple, republican, 18,954; Sheehan socialist 538.

For governor 504 precincts gave Schmedeman, democrat, 32,898; LaFollette, progressive, 39,050; Greene, republican, 20,312; Nelson socialist, 3,676.

Seed Vitality Is Not Fixed By Age

Washington (AP).—Farmers who are wondering if they dare plant old seeds in view of the current scarcity are being advised by the department of agriculture that age is no determining factor in the vitality of farm seeds.

Seed deteriorates more rapidly in a warm, moist climate than where it is cool and dry. Experiments in 1920 with 1915 Alsike clover seed showed a 62 per cent germination, while germination of the 1910 crop was 90 per cent. Field corn five years old germinated 3 per cent, while seed eight years old germinated 57 per cent. The seed tested had been stored under identical conditions.

According to Edgar Brown of the division of seed investigations there are no authenticated cases in which seed from ancient tombs has germinated, provided the seed was as old as the tomb.

LEHMAN AND COPELAND WIN

New York Sweeps Democratic Ticket Into Office; Fish Re-Elected.

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Leading the democratic sweep in the home state of President Roosevelt, Governor Herbert H. Lehman was re-elected Tuesday.

The Tammany incumbent, Dr. Royal S. Copeland, was also re-elected to the United States senate on the basis of incomplete, but decisive, returns.

Robert Moses, the progressive republican opponent of Lehman, conceded his defeat less than three hours after the polls closed.

At this time, Lehman had piled up a victorious lead in New York city and gained a surprising lead statewide.

Following the lead of Moses, Melvin C. Eaton, chairman of the republican state committee, conceded the election of both Lehman and Copeland.

At this time, Lehman was leading Moses 1,338,203 to 699,013 in 4692 districts out of 8951. This included a lead of more than 125,000 statewide.

With 4244 districts tallied, Senator Copeland led E. Harold Cluett, Troy collar manufacturer, 1,217,532 to 582,146.

Endorsed by President Both Lehman and Copeland were endorsed for re-election by the president, who made an exception in their case to his "hands off" policy in state campaigns.

At 9 p. m. the congressional lines were holding fast.

Among those re-elected was the republican, Hamilton Fish, one of the bitterest New Deal critics in congress. His district, the twenty-sixth, includes part of the president's home county, Dutchess, where the Roosevelts voted Tuesday.

Tammany was sending, on the basis of mid-evening returns, its entire delegation back to the house of representatives.

Mrs. Caroline O'Day, the democratic candidate for congress-at-large, for whom the president's wife abandoned tradition and stumped the state, was leading her republican opponent, Miss Natalie Couch, 233,394 to 104,085 with a thousand districts tallied.

From early indications, Lehman and Copeland were carrying into office with them their running mates on the state ticket.

13 JAILED FOR PARADE RIOTS

Political Feud, That Ended in Four Deaths, Brings Heavy Guards.

Kelayres, Nov. 7 (AP).—Citizens of this mountain mining town quietly cast their votes Tuesday where four men were slain and 14 others, including several women, were wounded by gunfire that raked a democratic parade.

Thirteen others, including the republican leader of the hard coal settlement, were removed under heavy guard to the Schuylkill county jail at Pottsville, and state troopers are guarding the home of Joseph Bruno, the politician.

Witnesses said shots flashed from the darkened windows of Bruno's home and from the apartment of his nephew, Paul, across the street, as singing, laughing, shouting men, women and children passed in the glare of red fire Monday night.

Inquiry Under Way County, state and federal officials began investigation of the shooting, but Lieut. Ward Griffith, of the Pennsylvania state police, said it may be a day or so before formal charges are filed because of the numerous statements to be obtained.

Griffith said he found weapons and ammunition in Bruno's home and a rifle in his nephew's apartment. Both said they did not know who did the shooting.

The tragedy climaxed a bitter political controversy that broke last November when the democrats won control of the town by 100 votes on the face of official returns. But a court recount gave the victory to the republicans.

The feud spread to municipal and school affairs amid numerous street fights, hair pullings and brawling during the year.

Campaign Adds Bitterness

Feeling increased as this year's campaign got under way. Monday night, while republicans laid preparation for Tuesday's balloting, democrats held a mass meeting. The parade and shooting followed.

Frank Fiorilla, 65, of Kelayres; John Golosky, 28, of McAdoo, and William Forte, 35, of McAdoo Heights, were killed in the firing, and Andrew Kontishon, 36, died in a hospital late Tuesday, while a score of his neighbors waited to submit to blood transfusions to save his life.

Dominick Perna, 7, of Kelayres, is dying.

Governor Pinchot promised swift investigation of the tragedy which he called "unspeakable."

CHARGE THAT HAUPTMANN IS GIVEN THIRD DEGREE

Flemington, N. J., Nov. 7 (AP).—Charges that Bruno R. Hauptmann, awaiting trial on charges of murdering the Lindbergh baby, is being indirectly subjected to third degree methods, were made Tuesday by one of the prisoner's new attorneys, Lloyd Fisher.

Fisher alleged that the constant use of twelve silent state troopers who stood about Hauptmann's cell and corridors leading to it, was a form of the third degree. He said he would take steps immediately to have the troopers replaced by constables.

Fisher said he would not object to the presence of four guards. He recalled that other murder suspects imprisoned in the same jail had never had more than four guards.

ACTRESS FREED IN CASE OF DISAPPEARING $2,000

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Mary Nolan, one-time "Follies" beauty and film actress, was discharged in court Tuesday on the strength of a telegram to the effect she was no longer wanted as a fugitive from Hazleton, Pa. The hearing had already started when the telegram from James A. Carr, of the Pennsylvania state police at Hazleton, came.

Miss Nolan was arrested Monday night for questioning about the disappearance of $2,000 in cash belonging to Louis Keffman, a Newark (New Jersey) theatrical agent, who spent Sunday night with Miss Nolan at a club near Hazleton, where she was employed. Carr's telegram said Keffman's complaint had been withdrawn.

MRS. DALL FAILS TO ATTEMPT TO VOTE

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Nov. 7 (AP).—Anna Roosevelt Dall, daughter of the president, did not return her absentee ballot Tuesday, thus side-stepping the challenge made to her franchise by Miss Natalie Couch on the grounds of non-residence.

Miss Couch, republican candidate for representative-at-large, declared her intention of challenging Mrs. Dall's vote in a telegram sent Monday to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. Because Mrs. Dall established residence in Nevada this summer to obtain her divorce, Miss Couch claimed that she had forfeited her right to vote in this state.

Mrs. Dall remained in Washington, and the ballot which she had obtained by mail was not returned.

All of the eight senior members of California's 1934 varsity were designated captains, each to serve during a quarter of the doubleheader which opened the Bear's schedule.

Sixty-third Anniversary: The

Read the Bible
With Us DailyThen said the high priest, Are these things so? And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken;
The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran; and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.
And God spake on this wise,
That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God; and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.And he gave him the covenant of circumcision; and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt; but God was with him,
And I delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams—
"OLD FASHIONED—BUT SO HAPPY!"I RECEIVED a very lovely letter the other day from a reader of these talks. The writer said that she and her husband were very "old fashioned—but so happy." That line has stayed in my memory ever since.Is there a new fashioned happiness? People were happy a thousand, or more, years ago. I have known people who seemed to have everything that money could buy—yet they remained unhappy. I have known people who had next to nothing, yet they were very happy.Which goes to prove, to me, that happiness is always in fashion, but it germinates within the heart. It has no money value. If it did, people would be mobbing every store where it could be purchased.There are people, however, who erroneously believe that money brings happiness. It only brings a certain security from worry—often it only adds to one's worry! Happiness is something which is not purchas-able. It is created within ourselves. The more we distribute it, the more rapidly does it grow within us.Old fashioned! What is it to be old fashioned, anyway? Certainly not to be true and simple and sincere. That isn't old fashioned. It is the most up-to-date thing in the world to be thus.Only in the category of the great are "old fashioned" people to be found—for they are the ones who have added lustre and beauty to this world and made it a happy battleground for all our ideas and aspirations. Our thoughts revert to our mother, who would be called "old fashioned" by many—but how we loved her. Everything beautiful in life she owned within her heart. And she bequeathed it all to those who knew her.I can imagine a thousand letters, or more, that might come to my desk, telling me how up-to-date and new fashioned the writer was—and yet so unhappy.I like the phrase of the poet who exclaimed that "kind hearts are more than coronets—and simple faith than Norman blood."It shall always be a compliment for people to tell me that I am old fashioned. I hope that I am, and that I shall always remain so—just so long as that shall mean that I am honest, fair, trustful and unafraid to stand alone, if need be.Holt Is Leading Senator Hatfield

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 7 (AP).

—Rush Holt, 29-year-old democratic champion of the Roosevelt new deal, took a quick lead over his veteran republican opponent, Henry D. Hatfield, Tuesday in early returns from West Virginia's senatorial race.The vote from 286 precincts out of 2338 gave Holt 49,832 and Hatfield 41,358.At 8:40 p. m., the Charleston Gazette claimed Holt's election. W. E.
Chilton, Jr., publisher of the newspaper, predicted a majority that "may run as high as 75,000" for Holt.The returns were from widely scattered sections. In five precincts from the normally republican county of McDowell, Holt, whose cam-paign was based on "100 per cent support" for all Roosevelt policies, was leading Hatfield, a fiery new deal critic, 980 to 269.Early returns in the contest on repeal of the state prohibition amendment showed a lead for those favoring abandonment of the 20-year-old constitutional amendment.From 223 precincts the vote was 31,667 for repeal and 22,351 against.
All six of the incumbent democratic congressional representatives were leading their republican opponents by varying margins in the first early returns.

HIGH COURT TO
SCAN GOLD ACTU. S. Justices Have Busy Day
On Monday; Face a Crowded Calendar.Washington, Nov. 7 (A.P.).—The supreme court, in one of the busiest sessions in its recent history, Monday produced a succession of weighty decisions affecting millions the country over.It agreed to pass quickly upon the validity of the law which took the country off the gold standard, a case labeled by the administration as holding possibility of affecting the very "financial stability" of the national government.For a second time the high court declared constitutional the New York law fixing milk prices. It attributed any inequitable results to the inefficiency of smaller milk distributing companies.Further, the tribunal announced it would reconsider an earlier de-
command of vital motion picture patents, a case which has worked its way into the tangled California political situation.

Important Ruling

The Gold act upon which the court promised to rule suspended payment of contractual obligations in gold, regardless of whether such payment was stipulated in the contract. The tribunal had previously agreed to review another case in which its validity was challenged.In the present instance, however, the case was taken out of the hand of the circuit court of appeals in order to expedite a final settlement of the question. Solicitor General Biggs urged such action several weeks ago, asserting:"The financial stability of the national government may be affected by the determination of this great issue. Succinctly, the issue is this:
Are all obligations to be discharged at the rate of $1.69 for each dollar borrowed?"

Monetary Policy at Stake

Behind the controversy lies the devaluation of the dollar. Its present gold equivalent is now but 59.06 per cent of what it was when most outstanding bonds calling for payment in gold were issued and contracts also specifying such payment were signed.In addition, the circulation of gold as legal tender has been outlawed, and the treasury has taken title to all the nation's stocks of gold coin and bullion.The case which the court took under advisement Monday was brought by holders of 30-year gold first mortgage bonds of the St.
Louis Iron Mountain and Southern railway in an effort to force repayment in gold or in that metal's present currency equivalent.Monday's second test of the New York milk price law, previously held valid, was brought by the Hegeman Farms corporation of New York city, contending that the spread between the price at which it was forced to buy and sell its milk was hot sufficient to give it a fair profit.The decision, a unanimous verdict, noted that dissatisfied dealers were privileged to ask a hearing before state authorities, a recourse of which the company in question had not availed itself.

Is This Too Good
for Your Cough?Creomulsion may be a better help than you need. It combines seven helps in one. It is made for quick relief, for safety.Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No one can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So careful people, more and more, are using Creomulsion for any cough that starts.The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist is authorized to guarantee it, so it costs nothing if it fails to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. For safety's sake, deal with them in the best way known. (adv.)

TO WAITING EUROPE

(All Europe is waiting for Americans to start collecting art again.— Dr. Wilhelm Valentiner.)When both capital and labor shall decide once more to neighbor
And to share each other's troubles,
Man to man and heart to heart
again;When the poor man and the scholar
Know the value of a dollar;
When a profit isn't shameful
We may start collecting art again.When the generation younger Isn't faced by cold and hunger
And we see a sign of business
Back in office shop and mart again;
When to reap is not a blunder
And we've done with plowing under,
Tell the waiting Europeans
We may start collecting art again.When we hire the men we've laid off;
When the war debts have been paid off;
When the mortgage has been lifted
And our idle factories start again;
When it's safe once more to borrow,
And with faith we face tomorrow;
When our earnings meet our taxes
We may start collecting art again.But I fear 'tis 'truth I'm stating
'Tis a long time they'll be waiting Ere to hand them hard-earned dollars
We shall ever think it smart again,
Until friendship we're assured of,
This is one disease we're cured of,
That may never live to greet us
When we start collecting art again.

CONNECTICUT RE-ELECTS

GOV. WILBUR L. CROSS

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 7.—Connecticut went overwhelmingly democratic Tuesday for the first time in 22 years, sweeping Governor Wilbur L. Cross back into office, and with him almost the entire democratic ticket. The only successful republican candidates were two congressmen running for re-election.Governor Cross, with voting heavy in the country districts, came into the towns almost even with State Attorney Hugh M. Alcorn, his republican opponent.Returns from fifty-two of the state's 169 towns give:
United States senator: Maloney,
democrat, 115,344; Walcott, 106,889.
Governor: Cross, democrat, 126-165; Alcorn, republican, 117,725.Democrats made a sweep of every city except Bridgeport, which was carried by the socialists with a plurality of approximately 6000 votes.The motto of Minnesota is "Etoile du Nord," meaning, "the Star of the North."Rattans, gutta-percha, dammar, tin, gold and lead are produced in Pahang, one of the Federated Malay States.Empty Your Gall BladderAnd You'll Feel Like a Billion Dollars!Sleepless nights, dog-tired days, headache, nausea in all parts of the body—indigestion—gas. Do you suffer from one or all?And have you tried every medicine under the sun, only to find yourself back where you started?No wonder, for you, like thousands of others have probably been treating yourself for everything but the right thing. Get at the unsuspected cause—your gall bladder. It sluggish, it won't pour into your small intestines the most important digestive juice necessary for neutralizing gastric acid, quickening digestion and dissolving the bilious tract. If this juice doesn't flow freely, then your food sours, putrefies, stomach becomes filled with gas and acidity.From the world's greatest chemists comes a simple, pleasant means to make this digestive juice flow freely, and put you on the happy side of life. Maltin's Oxidant, little white tablets that release pure oxygen. This oxygen—oxygen—pure than the air you breathe—plus maltin, gently stimulates the gall bladder, neutralizes burning acidity and sweeps that poison-packed bowel clean.
Take two Oxidants after each meal—and before retiring—drink plenty of water—and your gall bladder to work—and you'll jump out of your skin for joy. Such health such robust vigor! Get Maltin's Oxidant today from your druggist.—Advertisement.RITTENHOUSE

THEY ALL GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

PHARMACIST: "Nerves don't trouble me—and I don't ever want them to," says W. A. Seaman. "I smoke a great deal in my line of work and I stick to Camels. They never interfere with healthy nerves. And they have a rich, mild flavor that just suits my taste."

HOUSEWIFE: Mrs. C. Daly says: "I keep house—like millions of other women. And we all know how much energy a woman has to put into that job! My recipe for renewing energy is to smoke a Camel. Camels do pick up my energy when I'm tired, and they have such a mild flavor."

STEEPLECHASE RIDER. Crawford Burton: "Whether I'm tired from riding a hard race, or from a crowded business day, I feel refreshed and restored just as soon as I get a chance to smoke a Camel."

CUT THIS OUT

Excellent Recipe For Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers.

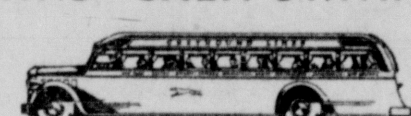

Secure from Peoples Drug Store or your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (Double strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one table spoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmit used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

A man and his wife who had just returned from a round-

We believe you will agree have merit.
